Stock Market Review

The benchmark KSE-100 index declined by 2.40% or 811 points during the month of Feb 2015 to close at the level of 33,632. Average Daily Volumes declined by 20.43% to 240mn from an earlier 302mn.

Foreign flows were negative during the month with market witnessing an outflow of USD62.48mn during the month, which is the highest monthly decline in the last 17 months. A bulk of the foreign outflow was due to a secondary market trade of KEL where more than USD50mn worth of securities was sold to local participants.

During the month, Banking stocks dragged the index lower owing to a surprise discount rate cut that was seen as unfavorable for the margins of the sector. Oil stocks remained under pressure this month as well owing to lack of investor confidence in the sector. However PSO outperformed the index this month due to expectations of resolution of circular debt in the wake of decline in oil prices. Amongst other sectors, dividend yielding stocks in fertilizer sector and IPPs continued to outperform the index due to favorable change in sector fundamentals.

Going forward, we reiterate our view that market is set to CY15 as Macro-economic and Political tail-winds continue to support the investors' confidence regains it momentum.

Money Market Review

The first half of this month saw the money market consolidating post the previous month's DR cut while the second half saw the market tilting towards expectations of further monetary easing. In line with these expectations, the 3MK and 6MK both closed 12bps and 14bps down at 8.44% respectively. T-bill and PIB yields also highlighted the same expectations with the T-bill yields going down by 14-17bps while PIBs fell by 14-22bps. The market faced a relatively tight liquidity scenario evidenced by Rs. 2.8 trillion worth of OMO injections carried out by the SBP coupled with Rs. 74 billion worth of discounting availed by various counters during the month. The SBP also conducted various OMOs for the Islamic market whereby in total, Rs. 42 billion was mopped up at a weighted average yield of 8.05%.

Moreover, two T-bill auctions were conducted during this period whereby in total, Rs. 287 billion was accepted against a participation of Rs. 552 billion with major acceptance in the 6 months category (Rs. 128 billion at a weighted average cut off yield of 8.44%). A PIB auction was also conducted which saw a heavy participation with a relatively lower acceptance level; Rs. 61 billion was accepted against a participation of Rs. 240 billion (highest acceptance in 5 yrs category: Rs. 36 billion at a cut off yield of 9.14%). On the forex front, the rupee lost value; in the interbank market it closed Rs. 0.76 weaker at Rs. 101.86/$ while in the open market, it closed Rs. 0.50 weaker at Rs. 102.10/$.
