Key Assumptions

Following are the key assumptions used in portfolio valuation:

Financial instruments

All the financial assets and liabilities are recognized at the time when the Portfolio becomes a party to the contractual provisions of the instrument. Financial assets are derecognized when the contractual rights to receive cash flows related to the asset expire. Financial liabilities are derecognized when they are extinguished, that is, when the obligation specified in the contract is discharged, cancelled, or expires. Any gain or loss on derecognizing of the financial assets and liabilities is taken to the income statement in the period in which it arises.

Revenue recognition

Capital gains on sale of a security are accounted for in the period in which they arise. Dividend income is recognized when the right to receive them is established. Income on bank deposits is recognized on accrual basis.

Propriety assets in the Composite

The composite contains investment of Al Meezan, its Management and that of discretionary portfolios.

Liability for Income Tax

Under the Income Tax Law in Pakistan, the definition of a public company includes a trust formed under any law for the time being in force. The Funds in the Composite are regarded as a public company liable to a tax rate applicable to a public company. The tax is chargeable at the rate applicable to a public company, which is presently as under;

1. Dividend income is taxable at applicable tax rate as provided in Income Tax ordinance, 2001 for public companies on gross income basis
2. Capital Gains Tax arising on sale of securities, listed on any stock exchange in Pakistan at applicable tax rates in accordance with the as applicable according to the relevant law
3. Return from all other sources / instruments are taxable at the rate applicable to a public company.

Liability for Income Tax, if ninety percent (90%) of the Fund is paid as cash dividends

Notwithstanding the tax rate as per applicable Tax Laws of Pakistan, income from the Fund will be exempted from tax if not less than 90% of the income for the year as reduced by capital gains is distributed amongst the Unit Holders as cash dividend.

This includes only cash dividend as consequent to amendments in Income Tax Ordinance, 2001 through Finance Act, 2014 for the purpose of determining distribution through bonus shares, units, certificates, as the case may be, shall not be taken into account.

Withholding Tax

Under the provision of Clouse 47(B) of part (IV) of second schedule of the income Tax Ordinance 2001, the income from dividend from (Shariah compliant term finance certificates, Sukuks, return on (Riba free) deposits with banks/financial institutions, return from contracts, securities or instruments of companies, organizations and establishments will not be subject to any withholding tax.

Taxation of Unit Holders & Liability of Zakat

a) Withholding tax

Unless exempt from such taxation by applicable law or at a reduced rate under any law or international agreement, cash dividend paid to unit holders of the fund will be subject to withholding tax as per prevailing tax law.

In terms of the provisions of the Income Tax Ordinance, 2001, the withholding tax shall deem to be full and final liability in respect of such distribution for individuals.

b) Capital gains

Capital Gains on disposition of units in the Fund will be subject to capital gains tax at the applicable tax rates.

There shall be no CGT, if holding period is more than 48 months (4 years). As per section 37(A) of the Income Tax Ordinance, 2001, Capital gains shall be treated as a separate block of income and losses under this head can be adjusted by the unit holder from the capital gains in the same tax year. Any unadjusted loss under this head is not allowed to be carried forward to the subsequent tax years.

c) Zakat Levy

In view of individual nature of tax consequences, each investor is advised to consult with his tax advisor with respect to the specific tax consequences to him of investing in the funds in the Composite.

Key Assumptions

Following are the Key assumptions used in portfolio valuation:

Financial instruments

All the financial assets and liabilities are recognized at the time when the Portfolio becomes a party to the contractual provisions of the instrument. Financial assets are derecognized when the contractual rights to receive cash flows related to the asset expire. Financial liabilities are derecognized when they are extinguished, that is, when the obligation specified in the contract is discharged, cancelled, or expires. Any gain or loss on derecognizing of the financial assets and liabilities is taken to the income statement in the period in which it arises.

Revenue recognition

Capital gains on sale of a security are accounted for in the period in which they arise. Dividend income is recognized when the right to receive them is established. Income on bank deposits is recognized on accrual basis.

Propriety assets in the Composite

The composite contains investment of Al Meezan, its Management and that of discretionary portfolios.

Liability for Income Tax

Under the Income Tax Law in Pakistan, the definition of a public company includes a trust formed under any law for the time being in force. The Funds in the Composite are regarded as a public company liable to a tax rate applicable to a public company. The tax is chargeable at the rate applicable to a public company, which is presently as under;

7. Dividend income is taxable at applicable tax rate as provided in Income Tax ordinance, 2001 for public companies on gross income basis
8. Capital Gains Tax arising on sale of securities, listed on any stock exchange in Pakistan at applicable tax rates in accordance with the as applicable according to the relevant law
9. Return from all other sources / instruments are taxable at the rate applicable to a public company.

Liability for Income Tax, if ninety percent (90%) of the Fund is paid as cash dividends

Notwithstanding the tax rate as per applicable Tax Laws of Pakistan, income from the Fund will be exempted from tax if not less than 90% of the income for the year as reduced by capital gains is distributed amongst the Unit Holders as cash dividend.

This includes only cash dividend as consequent to amendments in Income Tax Ordinance, 2001 through Finance Act, 2014 for the purpose of determining distribution through bonus shares, units, certificates, as the case may be, shall not be taken into account.

Withholding Tax

Under the provision of Clouse 47(B) of part (IV) of second schedule of the income Tax Ordinance 2001, the income from dividend from (Shariah compliant term finance certificates, Sukuks, return on (Riba free) deposits with banks/financial institutions, return from contracts, securities or instruments of companies, organizations and establishments will not be subject to any withholding tax.

Taxation of Unit Holders & Liability of Zakat

g) Withholding tax

Unless exempt from such taxation by applicable law or at a reduced rate under any law or international agreement, cash dividend paid to unit holders of the fund will be subject to withholding tax as per prevailing tax law.

In terms of the provisions of the Income Tax Ordinance, 2001, the withholding tax shall deem to be full and final liability in respect of such distribution for individuals.

h) Capital gains

Capital Gains on disposition of units in the Fund will be subject to capital gains tax at the applicable tax rates.

There shall be no CGT, if holding period is more than 48 months (4 years). As per section 37(A) of the Income Tax Ordinance, 2001, Capital gains shall be treated as a separate block of income and losses under this head can be adjusted by the unit holder from the capital gains in the same tax year. Any unadjusted loss under this head is not allowed to be carried forward to the subsequent tax years.

i) Zakat Levy
